JumpStart Your Projects To Success Today!

It's Your Business - a newsletter from Integrated Process Developers, Inc.

September, 2008

Today's projects are under tight deadlines which cause some project teams to minimize their project planning methodologies to save time.

However, all this does is increase the risk of missing your project's objectives and deadlines.

IPDI's "Project JumpStart" will do just what the name says - jump start your project to success. IPDI's expert project management consultants will facilitate your project planning to develop a robust project plan designed for project success.

Jump Start Your Projects For Success

Would you like to get your project planned swiftly but accurately so you can move into the Execution phase with a comprehensive integrated project plan?

Would a project management specialist aiding your team in project planning be advantageous?

IPDI is offering its "Project JumpStart" services to do just this.

IPDI will work with your project team to develop an integrated project plan which includes:

- Project Scope Statement
- Work Breakdown Structure
- Resource Requirements
- Project Schedule
- Risk Analysis
- Stakeholder Analysis
- Communication Plan

IPDI can either work with your company's own project management forms or we can use our own.

Contact Integrated Process Developers, Inc. today to learn more about how "Project JumpStart" can jump start your project's success,
